

Norwich Bulletin

NEWS FROM

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND.

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County

UNCASVILLE

Mazaar Held on the Lawn—Many Summer Visitors Arriving—Principal J. E. Murphy, Makes Long Trip in His Launch.

Miss Jane Paton has been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Angel of Norwich.

George Rice of New Haven, a former resident, who is spending his vacation with Miss Rice and party at Pleasant Beach, was in town calling on acquaintances recently.

Clarence Walden of Boston was a week end guest of Mrs. Walden and children, who are spending the summer with Miss Ida Browning.

Fred Hubert has resigned with the Palmer Bros. company.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Church have moved from Trevor Robertson's house, familiarly known as the Ritchie place, to the little cottage Dwight Kelsey recently purchased from L. E. Browning.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilbur have moved to the tenement vacated by Mr. Church.

Miss Hilma Rosenberg is spending her vacation with relatives in Providence.

Miss Helen Rogers accompanied by Mrs. Henry Church, spent the week end at the home of her parents in Old Lyme.

George Edwards, after several days spent at his home, has returned to Waterford.

Charles Olson entertained his son, John Olson of Waterbury, over the week end.

Bazaar on the Lawn.

The Good Cheer Sunshine society held a bazaar on the lawn of the Quaker Hill church on Wednesday afternoon. In the evening, Walden's yard of thirty pieces played an entertaining program.

Mrs. Bailey of Norwich is spending a few weeks as guest of friends in town.

Class Social.

The members of the class in Sunday school taught by Mrs. Ived I. Phillips met at the home of Miss Lottie Hill Tuesday afternoon for a social. Miss Hill is a member of the class, but owing to poor health is unable to attend Sunday school. After a pleasant time spent on the lawn refreshments were served.

Summer Visitors.

A party of twelve have established a camp at a cottage at Perryville. A large number of Hebrews from New York are constantly arriving to spend a few weeks on the farms, while the cottages along the river are all occupied.

Rev. and Mrs. A. G. Wilcox entertained over the week end their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hyde of New London.

The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church gave a party on the church lawn Wednesday evening.

Went Home in Launch.

James E. Murphy, principal of Palmer Memorial school, left Wednesday for his home in Dover, N. H., making the trip in his launch. Mr. Murphy has experienced considerable trouble with his launch, and it was himself last year. It was launched just before the boat races on the Thames. Mr. Murphy ran it on a few experimental trips and intended to return to his home in the trip, but through an accident to the engine he was unable to get repairing done in time; he abandoned his trip by water and went overland, anchoring his launch in the Thames for the rest of the summer. During the summer the launch was sunk and had to be hoisted out and changed to another location. Mr. Murphy has worked on it during his leisure time and has now put it in shape to make the trip to Dover.

Mrs. Peter Harrigan has been entertaining her daughter, Miss William Walsh of Greenville.

Moses Chapman spent Thursday with relatives in Lyme.

Norman Lathrop's big team moved a boiler weighing 12 tons from the spur track at the Rockland mill to the Massasoit company's mill in Oakdale Tuesday.

The dry weather is causing many of the lawns in town to be burned brown by the heat of the sun.

LEONARD BRIDGE

Death of Miss Bessie Kneeland—92 Degrees in the Shade This Week.

Judge A. G. Kneeland was in Middletown Wednesday to bring the body of Miss Bessie Kneeland to her home for burial. Miss Kneeland died at the Middletown asylum.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence K. Hulbert and Mrs. Hensler of New York, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cobb and Mrs. Maria Smith of Norwich spent a few hours Thursday with Mr. Cobb's sister, Mrs. L. Spaulding. The trip was made by auto.

Bert Stimpson was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, Willimantic, Monday. He has typhoid fever.

L. A. Manwaring, a few days ago lost his best horse. It was sick, only a short time, and coming as it does at the haying season, it is a great loss.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Manwaring, Miss Lena Manwaring and Mr. Paddock spent Saturday at the trip, New London and Nanticoke. The trip was made by Mr. Paddock's touring car.

Miss Hattie Williams, eldest daughter of H. J. Williams is ill, being overcome by the extreme heat.

The mercury soared to 92 degrees in the shade in several places Tuesday and Wednesday.

OAKDALE

NEW LONDON COUNTY T
Rev. Mr. French Holds Interesting Meeting for Men.

Rev. Mr. French preached Sunday from Prov. 14:2 and administered communion. Mr. French held a special meeting for the men in the church at 7:45, taking for his text, Matt. 5:4 and Jas. 5:2. Messrs. Chapel and Lynch sang several duets. F. P. Parker was organist. There were eighteen present. The ladies held the usual C. E. meeting in the chapel at the same hour.

Albert Lindsay of Brookville, Ind., is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. A. Lindsay.

Miss Parker and her brother, Edward, entertained friends from Waltham, Mass., the first of the week.

Mrs. Mary A. Beard of Wishing, N. Y., has come to spend some time at the home of her brother, F. P. Parker.

OLD MYSTIC

Summer Guests Come and Go—Picnic Outings—Catalpa Grove Beginning to Bloom.

Mrs. James Eldridge, a former resident of Old Mystic, has arrived at the home of her son, Rev. C. Frederick Eldridge of Niantic, after a lengthy visit to her son, William J. Eldridge of Cincinnati.

Captain A. P. R. Hanks of New York was a Sunday guest of his brother, W. H. F. Hanks.

Miss Marjorie Harris of Old Mystic, a graduate of New Britain Normal school, class 1912, has been engaged to teach the primary grades of the Old Mystic school.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Harris have returned from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Grosvenor of Abington.

Frederick Munich returned Sunday evening to his home in Bridgeport, after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Q. Eldridge at Riverside. Mrs. Munich and her two children remained for a longer visit.

J. Alpheus Schoonover of New York was a Sunday visitor at Elmhurst.

Deacon Cyrus H. Brown of Westerly was the guest Saturday of his cousin, Miss Susan H. Babcock.

Miss Grace Meach of Providence is spending her vacation at the home of her brother, Henry Meach.

Mrs. Conan and daughter of New Jersey are guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Gilbert.

Mrs. F. Edgar Crumb and Miss Virginia R. Crumb of Riverside, R. I., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Gilbert.

Mrs. Henry Tift of Tifton, Ga., was calling recently on her aunt, Mrs. Jane H. Dean.

Mrs. William D. Harris has returned to New London, after a week's visit to her father and sister, Dr. A. T. Chapman and Miss George W. Chapman.

Mrs. George Slawick and her mother, Mrs. Charles Q. Eldridge, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Slawick.

Miss Annie E. Lee went to Newport, R. I., Tuesday to attend the funeral of her cousin, Mrs. Robert S. Burlingame.

John Milton, the 3 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred E. Brown, is critically ill.

John Hood has returned to the U. S. battleship Vermont, at Norfolk, Va., after spending days furlough at the home of Henry Meach.

Mrs. Alice Charoux and Mr. and Mrs. Victor McNeil of Hudson, Mass., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Rice of Norwich recently visited Mrs. Rice's father, William H. F. Hanks.

Miss Lucy Gallup left Monday for Foster, R. I., where she will spend the month of July with her niece, Miss Mary Williams.

Mrs. William Babcock and daughter, Mrs. George Stone, have returned to North Stonington after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Morris B. Caswell.

Miss Alice Welch has returned to Nashua, N. H., after a visit to her cousin, Miss Hazel Clyde.

Attended Picnic.

The following enjoyed a picnic at Wheeler's Grove, Stonington, Independence day: Miss Louise Harris, Miss Gertrude W. Chapman, Rev. and Mrs. Arthur H. Withee, Miss Margaret Boothman, Mrs. Hattie Peckham, Miss Florence Johnson, Miss Marjorie, Miss Annie McDonald, Miss Esther Barnes, Miss Dorothy Harris, Miss Mildred Peckham, Miss Fay Johnson, Miss Christine Avery, Miss Della Williams, Miss Emma Williams, Miss Laura Avery, Miss Helen Williams, and Lawrence Williams. Everett Johnson, Philip H. Harris, Paul B. Lamphere, Theodore Johnson.

Pleasant Outing for Scouts.

The Boy Scouts picked the Fourth at Davis' wharf on the bank of the Mystic river. Those present were Horace S. Williams, Daniel Gilbert, Percival Anderson, Herbert Whiting, Harold Main, Clifford Desley, Howard Clyde, Earl Gilbert, William Marchand, Benjamin Davis, Raymond Anderson, Edward Welles, James Whiting, John Gilbert, Frederick Marchand, Edward Davis, Elmer Anderson, Charles Welles, John Marchand. The boys were in charge of Scout Master Rev. Henry E. Anderson and Assistant Scout Master Rev. Arthur H. Withee. Chowder made by Daniel Gilbert assisted by Mr. Welles and Mr. Anderson, was served, also sandwiches, cake etc. Guests at the picnic were Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Withee, Mrs. Alpheus H. Schoonover, Mrs. John R. Babcock, Miss Emily Babcock, Miss Dorcas Binkins, Mrs. W. Schoonover and Everett Johnson.

Catalpa Grove in Bloom.

The catalpa grove of Charles Q. Eldridge, at Riverside, has come into bloom the past week, 10 per cent. of the trees being in blossom. The sight of the beautiful flowers from the high-top and the delicate odor are worth driving many miles to enjoy.

NORTH STONINGTON

Playground Opens—Received Gift from Dr. E. R. Butler—Costa Rica Student at Parsonage.

The play ground was opened for the season Monday, with an attendance of 29 children. Among visitors present were Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Butler and Miss Butler of Brooklyn, N. Y., guests of Mrs. Thomas B. Hewitt. Dr. Butler made a generous gift toward buying on the work.

Visitor from Costa Rica.

Edward Gonzales of Costa Rica is spending a few weeks in the family of Rev. P. M. Hollister for the purpose of familiarizing himself with the English language preparatory to entering Columbia university next fall.

Miss Alice E. Avery is spending the month at Pleasant View.

Charles W. Dewey has returned from ten days' visit in Walling.

Miss Gladys Geer and her brother, Master Henry Geer, of East Orange, N. J., are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Fannie Stone.

PENDLETON HILL

Clifford Thompson has purchased an automobile.

Miss Sarah T. Palmer has returned home after spending a week in Colchester.

Edith Cooke spent Monday in Westerly.

Mrs. Harris Boardman and two children of Lancaster, Pa., are here for the summer.

Mrs. James Brooks of Jewett City returned home Monday after spending a week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson.

Arthur Ahern of Westerly is spending this week with his grandmother, Mrs. Anna Palmer.

Joseph Thompson of Glasgow is helping Malcolm Thompson with his haying.

SALEM

Winners in Contests on the Holiday—Bela L. Pratt May Purchase Music Vale—Equal Suffrage Speakers Appointed.

The largest crowd that has gathered on the town Green in several years were on hand to help the Sunday school of the Congregational church have a safe and sane Fourth of July. Dinner was served at 1 o'clock and the afternoon was taken up with races for the children. In a foot race for girls under 8 years the first prize was won by Ella Schmuckler and the second by Helen Rogers; foot race for boys under 8 first prize Sigmund Belonoski, second Theodore Bailey; foot race for boys 8 to 10 years, Mooney Wolenski first, Lawrence Spencer second; foot race for girls, 8 to 10, Sarah Schmuckler first, Ella Belonoski second; boys' horse race, Paul Purdy first, George Phillips second.

In the pennies race for small girls, Ella Schmuckler won 2 cents, Audrey Morgan 1 and Alice Rix 4. In the four legged race Sigmund Belonoski came in first and Chester Gordon second.

After the races a game of baseball was played between the single and married men, resulting in a victory for the married men, 20-15.

Miss Kittie Ray spent the Fourth at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Ray.

Mrs. H. A. Rogers spent the Fourth at the home of her sister, Mrs. Mary Sisson of North Plainfield.

Charles Tiffet of Wallingford and Mrs. Francis Tiffet of Waterford were also present at the family reunion.

Miss Harriet Williams of New London spent the Fourth at the home of her parents in town.

Entertained Friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William Maynard gave a house party at their home the evening of July 4. There was a display of fireworks, and watermelon, cake and ice cream were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore and children of Philadelphia arrived in town July 4 and have taken up their residence for the summer in the new house recently built for them on what is known as the Calvert place.

S. A. Miner and daughter, Miss Susan, visited relatives in Millington on Sunday.

Mr. Caulkins and daughter, Miss Julia, arrived at the Hurlbut house last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Clark of Colchester were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Clark.

Mr. Raymond returned to his home in Milton Monday after spending several days at the home of his daughter, Mrs. T. A. Williams.

Charles Miner has returned home, after spending several weeks with relatives in Colchester.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Kinsley entertained friends from Norwich Sunday.

Miss Ruth Sterry has been confined to her home by illness.

May Purchase Music Vale.

It is rumored that Bela Lyon Pratt, the sculptor, of Boston, is about to purchase the old Music Vale place for a summer home.

Woman Suffrage Endorsed.

The meeting in the interest of woman's suffrage held in the town hall on Tuesday evening was well attended. The women spoke on the following subjects: The condition of the working girl in the factories; What women have accomplished with the ballot. All received hearty applause from the audience.

Miss Pierson won round after round of applause from the audience as she so ably discussed the subject and answered questions asked by those in the audience. A large number of those present declared themselves for woman's suffrage.

Communion Sunday.

Rev. T. A. Williams preached last Sunday morning from the theme, "The abiding presence of Jesus Christ with His people; text, 'So I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.'"

At the close of the preaching service the ordinance of the Holy Communion was observed. The Y. P. S. C. E. service in the evening was led by Nathaniel S. Clark.

W. F. Morgan, Darling will lead the Endeavor service next Sunday evening. Topic, How much should a Christian think of personal appearance? 2 Kings, 3: 35-35. Psalm 46: 7-15.

SHUNOC

The Rev. E. R. Saunders of Ashaway, R. I., supplied the pulpit of the Second Baptist church Sunday morning.

Arthur M. Morgan of Ashwilleit was the guest of friends here Sunday.

Miss Fanny Edwards and a friend from Lyme were visitors in Shunoc Sunday.

The hay crop will be light, owing to dry weather.

W. F. Morgan has finished work for R. R. Wheeler and is now employed at Millington's sawmill in North Stonington.

George W. Larson and Mr. Ashcraft of Portland, Me., were callers here Sunday. Guests of E. R. James and family.

R. B. Wheeler recently shipped a carload of beef steers to Boston. Mr. Wheeler has a large number of workmen gathering in his hay crop.

Joseph James and daughter, Miss Effie James of Westport, R. I., were Sunday guests of E. R. James and family.

The continued click of the mowing machines is heard daily.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Wilbur Clark of this place attended the funeral of Origin Seymour Gallup in Voluntown.

MOHEGAN

July Visitors Come and Go—Local People on Outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Sturges and children of New London were guests of Mrs. Dunn Sunday.

Mrs. Davis and son Raymond of Mystic, are spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Thurston.

B. H. Fielding of New London called on friends in this place on Sunday.

Roger Dolbear of Lyme was the guest of Mrs. A. Dolbear Sunday.

Mrs. Dunn was in New London the first part of the week visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hurling.

Mrs. L. M. Fielding is in New London visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harriet W. Quigdon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Fowler and Miss Cynthia Fowler were the guests of Mrs. Quigdon the Fourth.

Mrs. N. Fowler was in New London Monday calling on friends.

Walter Stamm, Violet Bradford and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Fowler were at the beach last of the week.

Amelia Burdick and Herbert Rush were in New London early in the week.

GALES FERRY

Preacher From Indiana—Officers Elected by Country Club—Cemetery Association Votes for Extra Land.

Rev. George H. Murphy of Moore's Hill, Ind., the pulpit at the Methodist church Sunday morning and conducted the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, assisted by the pastor, Rev. C. Wilson Harrison. Consecration was the theme of Rev. Mr. Murphy's sermon, the text being Romans 12: 1, 2. The largest audience of the season was present at this service, many of the summer visitors at the Ferry availing themselves of the opportunity of hearing Mr. Murphy speak.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry Mann and family of Putnam arrived last week to spend the season at their cottage on the bluff.

Mrs. F. Herbert Brown of Norwich was a recent guest of Mrs. Franklin H. Brown at Redfern.

Richard G. Povey of Schenectady, N. Y., was a guest over the holiday and week end of his mother and sister at their summer home in the village. Mr. Povey was joined by Howard M. Morse of New York City for a week end visit here.

Visit Grandmothers.

The children of Maurice Maynard, Luella, Leroy and Byron, from Groton, enjoyed a day's visit with their grandmothers, Mrs. Lydia Maynard and Mrs. W. D. Fairfield at the Ferry Monday.

Misses Alice and Georgiana Hurlbut arrived Tuesday from New York to spend their vacations at their home at the Ferry.

Country Club Election.

The annual meeting of the Gales Ferry Country Club was held at the home of Miss Marion Barnshaw Monday evening. The reports of the officers for the past year were given.

The election resulted in the selection of the following people as officers of the club: President, Rufus W. Hurlbutt; vice-president, Miss Bessie Ames; secretary, Miss Marjorie Mann; treasurer, Miss Natalie Gibbs; tennis committee, Louise Stokewell.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Gilbert of Norwich have arrived to spend the season at the Perkins place.

Horace Lucas of Norwich was a recent guest of Miss Barnshaw.

Misses Alice and Georgiana Hurlbutt are spending several weeks at the Pitcher cottage on the bluff.

Wesley Dexter of Brewster's Neck was a visitor at the parsonage Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. A. L. Morgan and daughter Florence Jeannette of Middletown, who have been guests for a week of Mrs. Morgan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Latham, have left for a week end visit with Mrs. Morgan's mother in Guilford before returning home.

Miss Caroline Freeman of Mount Vernon, N. Y., arrived recently to spend the season with her parents at the Perkins place.

Work on the Freeman residence on the Noyes B. Allen place was begun Thursday by New London carpenters.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Richards and daughter, Miss Evelyn, of Laurel Hill Avenue, Norwich, were guests over the holiday of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan N. Newberry, Miss Richards remaining for a week end visit.

Mrs. Joab Rogers, with Mr. and Mrs. Milo Benn and children, arrived from New London Wednesday evening to spend the season at their summer home here.

More Land for Cemetery.

The special meeting of the Gales Ferry Cemetery association called for last Saturday afternoon, at the vestry of the M. E. church, to consider the need of the cemetery of the cemetery grounds, resulted in the appointment of Noyes B. Allen, president of the association, to secure the necessary land on the west side of the present yard.

Mr. and Mrs. Latham Smith entertained friends at their home on the Fourth with a picnic dinner in honor of Mrs. Smith's birthday. There was an attendance of 23 guests being present from New London, Poquonoc, Allen's Point and Long Cove.

Rev. George H. Murphy, who has been a guest of Mrs. Murphy's mother, Mrs. Richard Latimer, during his vacation, left Wednesday evening to return to his duties as district superintendent of the Moore's Hill Ind. Conference. Mrs. Murphy will remain here for a long visit with relatives.

Mrs. Nicholas Allen of Ledyard, who has been spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Alice Leach, in New York City, returned Monday evening to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Babcock at Ledyard Center. Mrs. Leach accompanied her mother for the journey from New York.

HANOVER

Meeting of Missionary Society—Home of Everett House Burned—Equal Suffrage Meeting.

A meeting of the members of the Congregational church is to be held Monday evening.

Missionary Society.

The annual meeting of the Women's Missionary society was held at the home of Mrs. Allison B. Ladd Friday, July 6th. Miss Ruth Standish read a paper, What the Congregational Denomination is Doing for Home Missions, work in the rural districts, work for negroes and Indians. Miss Helen Eadie gave an account of the conference of missionary workers held at New London. Miss Jennie Gallup read a paper on Work in the South.

Mrs. F. G. Way of East Glastonbury sang two solos, accompanied by Mrs. L. Greig of Danville. Annual reports were read by Mrs. W. Standish, who was elected secretary of foreign missions in place of Miss Ellen Peck, who has moved from town. The other officers were re-elected. The hostess served tea, ice cream and cake. Guests of the meeting were Mrs. Tappan and Miss Tappan of New York, Mrs. F. G. Way, Mrs. L. Greig, Miss Ella Lindeberg and Miss Marian Walker.

Waterbury Wherry of the C. E. meeting last Sunday evening. The topic was Christian Virtue—Honesty.

Home and Contents Burned.

On Friday of last week the home of Ernest House, with most of its contents, was destroyed by fire. Efforts were made by neighbors to extinguish the fire, but were able to save only a small portion of furniture and wearing apparel.

Woodland Fire.

Sunday afternoon 2 o'clock W. S. E. discovered a fire in the Salt Rock woods. The alarm was quickly given and about 20 men responded. It required several hours of hard work to put out the fire. W. S. E. Oscar Allen, N. A. Bennett, Norman Standish, J. Beattie, Jr., and Ralph Standish were among the first to respond. About 25 acres of sprout land was burned over.

To Play Jewett City Today.

The Athletic baseball club was defeated last Saturday by the Hospital boys in a close and exciting game by a score of 4-2. The Athletics had the Hospital shut out until the fifth inning, when a few errors let in three runs. Bill Walsh pitched for Hanover and held the Hospital boys down to five hits. The Athletic team will play them again on the 10th. Today (Saturday) they play Jewett City in Athletic park.

Rev. E. J. Pohl was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Gallup over Sunday.

Mrs. Franklin has as guests Mrs. W. Britton and son Harold and Winfield and Alvin Gaffney of Providence.

Mrs. Charles Peck of Marshfield, Mass., is spending about two weeks at the home of James W. Eadie.